About Us

Established on December 16, 2016, Mahavir's Oil Seeds & Agri Products Private Limited, known to our customers and the market as Bulkoil, is a registered importer and exporter of edible and non-edible products in various forms and sizes.

We serve a select network of businesses and clients, providing a seamless, one-stop solution for placing orders and handling all formalities until delivery.

At Bulkoil, we specialize in both crude and processed oil bases, catering to custom requirements based on client and market needs. Our commitment to quality and reliability ensures that we meet the diverse demands of our customers efficiently and effectively.

Company CEO & Founder

Mr. Deepak Goyal comes from a business family with a long history in the oils, cotton, and coal industries. Building on this legacy, he chose to expand into the oil sector. As the CEO and Managing Director of Bulkoil, Mr. Goyal brings a wealth of professional experience to the company. He is a commerce graduate who has worked in various trading firms before founding Bulkoil.

He is driving the company's vision to establish Bulkoil as a leader in the import and export segment, leveraging his family's extensive experience and network.
